

Would you like to become a mediator at the International Mediation Centre to Chambers of Commerce in Poland?

The BPCC recently informed its members about the establishment of an International Mediation Centre (IMC) which offers extra-judicial business dispute resolution for chamber members and for entrepreneurs seeking mediation.

The IMC would like to invite you to take an active part in the project.

The BPCC hopes that among its members there will be people with the right mix of professional specialist skills, predispositions, knowledge and experience to become IMC mediators. Should you be interested, please fill in the application form and submit it to the coordinator, Dr Ewelina Stobiecka.

Dr Ewelina Stobiecka
e.stobiecka@taylorwessing.com
Tel: +48 22 584 97 40
Tel. +48 669 73 79 79

Requirements for mediators

A mediator in proceedings led by the IMC can be a person with adequate knowledge and experience in field of business and its regulations, who has:

- a) capacity to legal transactions and has not been convicted for economic crimes or fortifying documents, and is over 30 years old.
 - b) completed relevant courses or postgraduate studies in the field of mediation: the required number of hours of training is a minimum of 40 or warrants the performance of the tasks of a mediator documenting compliance with the requirements set out in section XI.3 below and
 - c) knowledge and experience in economic issues and has a good knowledge of current regulations and/or functioning practical rules in business.
1. A mediator may be a legal advisor or a counsellor with a specialisation and a good experience in economic law cases
 2. IMC mediator status you get by signing on the list led by International Mediation Centre

Entry and removal from the list of mediators

Entering the list of mediators is made on individual request. Candidates must give the following information:

1. Name, address, phone number and email address

2. Statement of capacity to legal transactions and a criminal record (KRR) check referred to in paragraph 1 section on requirements for mediators.
3. previous experience, training and other additional qualifications, education and publications
4. knowledge of the foreign languages in which the mediation can be held
5. when submitting the above documents, the candidate shall also submit a statement of consent to the processing of personal data for the objectives of the ICM in accordance with the Act of August 29, 1997 on the Protection of Personal Data (Journal of Laws of 2002 No. 101, item. 926, as amended).
6. Entry on the list of mediators requires an entrance fee of 150 PLN.

Mediators may be removed from the list :

1. At the mediator's own request
2. After repeated serious reservations as to the quality of the mediators work, directed in writing by clients of the IMC.
3. In cases of refusing to conduct a mediation without a good reason for four times in a row. This does not include refusals based on potential violation of the principles of impartiality
4. In case when a mediator no longer meets the conditions, necessary to obtain an entry on the list of mediators for the ICM.